A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pains or distress in the stomach, gnawing or distressed feeling in the stomach, perhaps nausea, or "brilliant" or "brilliant" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more completely than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the Golden Medical Discovery regularly and stick to it until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

TWO NEGROES LYNNED.

Two negroes lynched and a posse in pursuit of the wife of one of the victims: the killing of a prominent planter, a member of the posse; the probably fatal injury of the sheriff of Montgomery county, Ga., and the wounding of four other members of the posse, summarized the results of one of the most exciting man hunts that section has ever known.

B. N. Clark, an escaped convict from the Bibb county chain gang, was shot to death after a fierce battle early yesterday and his body burned. The negro threatened to kill Nicholas Adams, a merchant of Kibbee county, "and a hundred others."

John Sweeney, who harbored the convict, was taken from a passenger train a mile from Terrytown last night and lynched. The posse then set out in search of Sweeney's wife, who, it is said, was in the neighborhood.

James Durden, a prominent planter and member of the posse which captured Clark, was shot and instantly killed. The other members of the posse who were shot by Clark were: Sheriff James Lester, Walter Simmons, and three others unknown. The sheriff received an ugly wound in the breast.

The posse found Clark in Sweeney's house. Sweeney's wife was at home, but Sweeney was absent. The sheriff called on Clark to surrender. For answer he received a bullet from a rapid fire gun. Durden was shot, and other members of the posse fell before the torrents of lead dealt out by the negro. He continued to fire until his ammunition was exhausted. He was then overpowered and his body riddled with bullets.

Clark wore a steel breastplate that turned Winchester bullets. A pile of logs was covered with crude turpentine and the body cremated. In the excitement the woman escaped. The event of the day fired the anger of the posse, and it is said she cannot evade the search that is being conducted tonight.

Sweeney was caught near Sperton yesterday afternoon. He was carried aboard a northbound train to a secluded wood, near Terrytown, where his body was riddled with bullets after being swung up to a sapling.

SUICIDE OF OCTOGENARIAN.

William Reed, 83 years old, was found dead in his room at Portsmouth yesterday. He had placed the muzzle of a revolver in his mouth and ended his life.

"Bully" Reed, as he was known, was an eccentric character whose fame was spread throughout the state. He had attended every political and firemen's convention for 60 years, and had made more narrow escapes than any man in Portsmouth.

He was caught inside the federal lines at Suffolk once and was sentenced to be shot as a spy. He escaped on the eve of his execution. A Portsmouth lawyer found him masquerading on his premises once in a bear skin and took a shot at him, but only the skin was punctured. On another occasion he was mistaken for a burglar and wounded.

In late years the old fellow had been in bad health. He was supported by the volunteer firemen's organization, and, becoming dependent because of his dependence and his illness, he retired to his room last night, chinked all the windows and doors to muffle the noise of the shot, and took his life.

BLOWN FROM CANNON'S MOUTH.

Paul Paulson, a member of the Escanaba division of the Michigan State Naval Reserve, was literally blown from the muzzle of an old-fashioned cannon at Escanaba yesterday afternoon when the charge exploded prematurely. Fully 10,000 people were in attendance when the tragedy took place, and at least a thousand of them were eyewitnesses to the death of young Paulson.

The work of inserting the fuse and priming powder brought many of them so close to the breach of the weapon that they crowded about the wheels and powder boxes. Paulson was at the muzzle, ramming home the wadding, when a spectator thoughtlessly flicked the ashes from his cigar.

There was a tiny puff of flame and smoke as the priming powder blazed, a deafening explosion, and the frightened hundreds saw the gunner fall fatally injured.

Fred Winchester, another member of the company, was badly burned about the face, but he will recover.

STANDS BY DR. WILEY.

It is the opinion of Simon Hubig, of Cincinnati, who yesterday gave up the presidency of the Master Bakers' now in session in Minneapolis, that Dr. Wiley is on trial for his job as the result of the convention of the association of State and National Food Departments at Denver. "The government experts, Dr. Ladd, Mr. Wiley and Dr. Sheppard, however, are as honest as can be and the people should rise up in their wrath and smite the men who are fighting the government," said Hubig, referring to the subject of bleached flour.

Windom Meek, Los Angeles, the incoming president of the Master Bakers' insists that the peroxide of nitrogen in food should be discontinued pointing out that delegates were sent to Washington last spring by the Master Bakers' to argue out this question at the department.

Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.
